Dear Members of the Lawrence County Commission:

The Black Hills Mining Museum has been fulfilling its mission of educating about the area's rich mining history for 35 years. We are eagerly planning for a strong future and are hosting a meeting to inform the public of our ideas and plans to construct a new facility.

We want to specifically invite you the members of the Lawrence County Commission to join us at this event. It will be held, Tuesday evening, December 14th at 7:00 at the Homestake Opera House.

All of us here at the museum look forward to seeing each of you there.
